1a. Savior of the Nations, Come

Let the Earth Now Praise the Lord

NUN KOMM, DER HEIDEN HEILAND
Wittenberg, 1524

CW 2, 28

G minor

Musical score for 1a. Savior of the Nations, Come in G minor. The score is in 4/4 time and consists of two systems of piano accompaniment. The first system has a treble clef and a bass clef. The treble clef part starts with a triplet of eighth notes (G4, A4, B4) and continues with a melodic line. The bass clef part provides harmonic support with chords and single notes. The second system continues the melody and accompaniment. Fingerings are indicated by numbers 1-5. A dashed line in the bass clef of the second system indicates a fingering change.

1b. Savior of the Nations, Come

E minor

Musical score for 1b. Savior of the Nations, Come in E minor. The score is in 4/4 time and consists of two systems of piano accompaniment. The first system has a treble clef and a bass clef. The treble clef part starts with a triplet of eighth notes (E4, F#4, G4) and continues with a melodic line. The bass clef part provides harmonic support with chords and single notes. The second system continues the melody and accompaniment. Fingerings are indicated by numbers 1-5. A dashed line in the bass clef of the second system indicates a fingering change.

86. Alleluia! Sing to Jesus

HYMN TO JOY

Ludwig van Beethoven, 1770–1827, alt.

CW 169

The first system of musical notation consists of a grand staff with a treble clef on the upper staff and a bass clef on the lower staff. The key signature has one flat (B-flat) and the time signature is 4/4. The melody in the treble clef begins with a triplet of eighth notes (G4, A4, Bb4) marked with a '3' above the notes. The bass clef accompaniment features a steady eighth-note pattern. A fingering '1' is placed below the first note of the second measure in the bass clef, and a '5' is placed below the fifth note of the same measure.

The second system continues the musical notation. The treble clef melody continues with the triplet pattern. The bass clef accompaniment maintains the eighth-note pattern. Fingering '1' is placed below the first note of the second measure, and '5' is placed below the fifth note of the second measure. At the end of the system, a '2' is placed above the final note and a '4' is placed below it.

The third system continues the musical notation. The treble clef melody features a change in rhythm, with eighth notes and quarter notes. The bass clef accompaniment includes a chromatic descending line in the second measure, marked with a sharp sign (#). Fingering '1' is placed above the final note of the system, and '(e)' is written next to it. In the bass clef, fingering '1' and '2' are placed below the first and second notes of the first measure, and '1', '2', and '1' are placed below the notes of the final measure.

The fourth system concludes the musical notation. The treble clef melody returns to the triplet pattern. The bass clef accompaniment continues with the eighth-note pattern. Fingering '1' is placed below the first note of the second measure, and '5' is placed below the fifth note of the second measure. At the end of the system, a '2' is placed above the final note and a '4' is placed below it.

126. Let All Things Now Living
Sent Forth by God's Blessing

THE ASH GROVE
Welsh folk tune

CW 260, 318

The image displays a piano score for the Welsh folk tune 'Let All Things Now Living'. The score is written in G major (one sharp) and 3/4 time. It consists of five systems of music, each with a treble and bass staff. Fingerings are indicated by numbers 1-5 above or below notes. The piece concludes with a double bar line at the end of the fifth system.
