

Below is a list of the hymns in Christian Worship (CW) and Christian Worship: Supplement (CWS) for which permission or a license is needed for the reproduction of text or music in service folders, projection of text or music onto screens, or livestreaming/podcasting of worship services.

The Permission Needed column lists the copyrighted parts (text, tune, setting) of each hymn that require a license. Please note that you only need a license for reproduction or streaming of copyrighted text or music. Any hymn part not listed in this column is public domain. You do not need permission or a license for anything that is public domain.

The Licensing Agent column identifies the licensing service that covers that hymn’s copyright. Be sure you understand your licenses—what they cover and how reporting works; note that some licensing agents such as OneLicense require weekly reporting of the copyrighted materials you use under that license. Do not report public domain text or music to OneLicense. CW and CWS liturgical music is covered under OneLicense, and the specific copyright holders are identified in the Acknowledgments sections of the hymnals.

For information on OneLicense, go to www.OneLicense.net and www.OneLicense.net/FAQ

For information on CCLI, go to www.CCLI.com

In some cases, the copyright holder is not part of a licensing service such as OneLicense or CCLI and permission is needed directly from that copyright holder. A list of contact information for those copyright holders follows the list.

This list is subject to change without notice. Copyright owners can change their agreements with licensing agencies at any time. If NPH is notified of a change, we will update this posted list on the NPH website. However, the licensing agents and copyright holders have the most up-to-date information on their copyrights and licensing.
