The heart of the Torah points to the heart of God's plan of salvation through Christ.

Torah Symmetry

WHERE
- The Tabernacle — God's place of meeting authorized
  - Exodus 25:1–31
- The Tabernacle — built and dedicated
  - Exodus 35:1–40

WHAT
- Prologue — God's grace to humanity until Moses
  - Genesis 1–50
- Setting the Stage — for deliverance
  - Exodus 1–2
- Leader Chosen — Moses
  - Exodus 3–4
- Opposition — Pharaoh and Egypt
  - Exodus 5–11
- Salvation — in Egypt: the Passover to the crossing of the Red Sea
  - Exodus 12–13
- Rebellion — on the way to Mount Sinai
  - Exodus 14–18
- Preparation — to meet the Lord at Mount Sinai
  - Exodus 19
- Expectations — the Ten Words and Book of the Covenant
  - Exodus 20–24

WHERE
- Day of Atonement — God's grace to Israel under Moses
  - Leviticus 16

WHEN
- Results — blessings and curses
  - Leviticus 26:1–27
- Preparation — to leave Mount Sinai
  - Numbers 1–9
- Rebellion — on the way from Mount Sinai
  - Numbers 10–20
- Salvation — the snake on a pole in the wilderness
  - Numbers 21
- Opposition — Balaam, Moab, and Midian
  - Numbers 22–25
- Leader Chosen — Joshua
  - Numbers 26–27
- Setting the Stage — for inheritance
  - Numbers 28–36
- Epilogue — God's grace to Israel under Moses
  - Deuteronomy 1–34

---

© John C. Lawrenz. All rights reserved. Used with permission. This chart may be reproduced for personal use or for noncommercial use in a Bible study class.