I am the light of the world.
Whoever follows me will never walk in darkness,
but will have the light of life.

John 8:12
(NIV 1984)
Puppet Skit

Teacher: Chatter, your mom said you were excited about a new area in your Sunday school classroom. What is it?

Chatter: It’s the prayer area, and it’s neat! It has some big pillows, a picture of Jesus, and our prayer journals. We can go there when we get to Sunday school.

T: What do you do there?

C: Sometimes I say a prayer by myself, and sometimes I ask my teacher to pray with me. Other times I write in my prayer journal. Would you like to see something I wrote?

T: Sure! (Helps Chatter open to the first picture in the notebook.)

C: I drew this picture when I was feeling sad that my new neighbor wouldn’t come to church with me. Then I asked Jesus to help me find ways to share God’s Word with my friend.

T: Thanks for showing us your prayer journal, Chatter. I enjoyed hearing about a way you asked Jesus for help in a time of trouble.

C: You’re welcome! Now I’m going home. Mom said she would get me a notebook that I can use for my prayer journal at home. Good-bye, everyone!

T and Students: Good-bye, Chatter!
Float, Little Boat

Carol Greene

1. Float little boat, on the deep blue sea.
2. Here comes a wave taller than a tree.
3. Jesus wakes up, and he hears their plea.

Jesus sleeps peacefully.
Jesus’ friends all agree.
“Quiet now, a storm and a sea!”

Rumble, FLASH! Oh, me!
“Lord, wake up! Emergency! Oh, sure enough, the storm clouds flee.

Save us from the sea!”
“See, you can trust me.”

Text, Tune, Setting: © 1997 Carol Greene. All rights reserved. Used with permission.