I am the light of the world.
Whoever follows me will never walk in darkness,
but will have the light of life.

John 8:12
(NIV 1984)
Teacher: Who was the special visitor who came to your Sunday school class?

Chatter: Chad’s dad, Mr. Lewiston. He’s a soldier who serves in another country, but right now he is home for a short visit.

Melody: Mr. Lewiston said that while he is away being a soldier, he also gets to tell people about Jesus. Sometimes he talks to the grown-ups and kids who live in that faraway place. Sometimes he shares Jesus with other soldiers who are there with him.

C: I told Mr. Lewiston that it was cool he could tell people in a different country about Jesus, and he said I could help him by praying for him.

M: Our class decided to help in another way too. We gave him some of our extra Bible lesson pages so he could give them to the people over there.

C: We also decided to make special cards and pictures with Bible passages and prayers on them. We put each one in a separate envelope and then put them all in a box with a note on it. The note said that Mr. Lewiston should open one each day. He could either keep the cards and pictures for himself, or he could use them to tell other people about Jesus.

T: Chatter and Melody, those are some great ways to help people in that faraway country hear the good news about Jesus.

M: Thanks! Now we need to get going. We want to make some more cards and pictures to send with Mr. Lewiston. Good-bye, everyone!

T and Students: Good-bye, Chatter and Melody!

I can go and tell.

Tell what?

That Jesus died for all.
