I am the light of the world.
Whoever follows me will never walk in darkness,
but will have the light of life.

John 8:12
(NIV 1984)
The first little friend said, “Come to church.”
The second little friend said, “Why?”
“To learn of Jesus’ love for you
And why he had to die.”

The second little friend—he came to church.
He learned of Jesus’ love.
He learned why Jesus had to die.
He learned of heav’n above.

The second little friend said, “Come to church.”
The third little friend said, “Why?”
“To learn of Jesus’ love for you
And why he had to die.”

The third little friend—she came to church.
She learned of Jesus’ love.
She learned why Jesus had to die.
She learned of heav’n above.

The third little friend said, “Come to church.”
The fourth little friend said, “Why?”
“To learn of Jesus’ love for you
And why he had to die.”

The fourth little friend—he came to church.
He learned of Jesus’ love.
He learned why Jesus had to die.
He learned of heav’n above.

The fourth little friend said, “Come to church.”
The fifth little friend said, “Why?”
“To learn of Jesus’ love for you
And why he had to die.”

The fifth little friend—she came to church.
She learned of Jesus’ love.
She learned why Jesus had to die.
She learned of heav’n above.

All the friends know Jesus now.
They know of Jesus’ love.
They know why Jesus had to die.
They know of heav’n above.
