1 Draw near and take the body of the Lord,
2 He that his saints in this world rules and shields
3 Come forward, then, with faithful hearts sincere,

And drink the holy blood for you out poured.
To all believers life eternal yields,
And take the pledges of salvation here.

Offered was he for greatest and for least,
With heav'nly bread makes them that hunger whole,
Before your altar, Lord, your servants bow;

Himself the victim and himself the priest.
Gives living waters to the thirsty soul.
In this your feast of love be with us now.
